ABOUT SCRIPTS GONE WILD

Scripts Gone Wild is many things: a live script reading series; a drinking game; a fundraiser for a charitable cause; a laugh riot; and a chance to see some of your favorite celebrities and influencers make fools of themselves for your amusement.

Started in 2007 at the Chattanooga Film Festival, Scripts Gone Wild has performed over 50 live readings both in-person and online. Previous guests have included: Joel McHale, Perez Hilton, Tracie Thoms, Michael Urie, Dana Gould, Diedrich Bader, Karan Soni, Barbara Crampton, and many more. We've taken the stage at Fantastic Fest in Austin, the Frida Cinema in Santa Ana, El Cid on Sunset in Los Angeles, and various festivals and conventions.
